(d) how many are there now;

(e) whether some of the Judges resigned their posts; and

(f) the reasons for their resignations?

MR. B. PARAMU (Secretary to Government): (a) Senior member of a respectable Nair family with knowledge in English. Chairman of the same Court for one term previously and Judge-Magistrate for two terms. He has been the President of the Taluk Co-operative Bank and also a very big contractor.

(b) The recommendation is confidential and cannot be divulged.

(c) At the time of the appointment of the present Chairman there were five advocates.

(d) One.

(e) Yes.

(f) Personal inconvenience.

MR. K. A. MOHAMED: May I know from the honourable member whether there were advocates who were competent to hold the post of the President?

MR. B. PARAMU: No such names were recommended to Government.

UNSTARRED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Stationary Magistrates.

23. MR. P. K. KUNJU (Ambalapuzha cum Shertalai): Will the Government be pleased:

(a) to lay on the table the number of postings as Stationary Magistrates with a list by caste, from 1-1-1119 to 1-9-1120 from (a) Secretariat, (b) other departments and (c) the Bar; and

(b) to state how many among these posts are graduates-in-law?

MR. B. PARAMU:

(a) Secretariat.

Messrs.
1.	P. R. Nedungadi, B. A., B. L.,	Other Hindu
2.	A. Kunjukrishna Pillai, B. A., B. L.,	Nair
3.	V. V. Joseph, B. A., Barrister-at-law,	Syrian Catholic.
4.	N. Krishna Pillai, B. A., B. L.,	Nair
5.	N. Sreedharan Nair, B. A., B. L.	Nair.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

[Mr. B. Paramu.]

6. P. Subramoniam, B. A., B. L., Other Hindu

7. P. G. Sivarama Pillai, B. A., B. L. Nair

8. V. Devaraja Iyer, B. A., B. L., Brahmin

9. P. Muthuswami Thevar, B. A., Other Hindu

(b) Other Departments.

1. K. Meeran Rowther, B. A., B. L., Accountant General's Office. Muslim

2. P. Chandrasekharan Nair, B. A., B. L. Revenue Department Nair

3. P. Subramonia Iyer, B. A., B. L., Registration Department Brahmin

(c) Nil.

(d) Nil.

Travancore Rubber Works.

SHRI B. BALAKRISHNA MENON (Kunnathad cum Purar): Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) the percentage of share in Travancore Rubber Works held by the Government;

(b) the agency by which the products of Travancore Rubber Works are marketed;

(c) the name and number of agencies that exist at present in India and outside;

(d) the name of agent or agencies in each locality;

(e) the difference in percentage of commission allowed to wholesale agencies and the margin the wholesale agencies allow their retailers; and

(f) whether the Government exercise any control in fixing up the agencies and regulating the retail and wholesale prices of the products of Travancore Rubber Works?

SHRI P. PARAMU: (a) The Travancore Rubber Factory belongs to the Travancore Government. They have leased the factory to Sir Chinubhai Madhawlal Tranchellal, Baronet, Bombay by an agreement, and by another agreement the lease is being worked by Sir Chinubhai Madhawlal Tranchellal and the Travancore Government on a 50:50 partnership basis.

(b) The products are marketed through distributors.

(c) & (d) There are six distributors in India and one in Ceylon. They are:—

(i) Messrs. Kanarish & Co., 30, General Patters Road Mount Road, Madras, for the whole of Madras Presidency;

(ii) Messrs. Bhashiara Corporation, 142, Gandhinagar Bangalore City, for the whole of the States of Mysore and Hyderabad;

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly